Help and support

- The assignment is an individual submission.

- No feedback is released before the due date.

- Drop-ins, email support, and discussion groups cannot address specific coding issues when writing your code.

- We can, however, provide general guidance and suggestions.

Feedback

- All the approx 180 submissions will have to be manually graded.

- The feedback for your individual assignments will be provided as soon as materially possible (before the 19th of January).
